ANSENIBLE VIEW OF THE PROHIBITION QUESTION.

A few days ago Mr. V. V. Barnes, chairman of the executive committee of the constitutional prohibition organization of South Dakota, wrote a letter to the Rev. Lyman Abbott, editor of the Christian Union, asking this question: "Are you opposed to prohibition on general principles?" This question was based on the fact that Dr. Abbott did not follow in the lead of the third party prohibitionists. This "grieved" the readers of the Christian Union in South Dakota, so Mr. Barnes said, and he wondered whether Dr. Abbott was forsaking the prohibition cause or not. The doctor was not slow in answering, and the letter he wrote to the chairman of the executive committee of [the South Dakota prohibition organization, is eminent for its soundness, and should be read by every temperance reformer in the country. Here is the letter:—

V. V. Barnes, Esq., Chairman, Executive Committee of Constitutional Prohibition Organization, Yankton, South Dakota.
Dear Sir:—I must answer your note of August 12th very briefly if I answer it at all.

1. I am heart and soul with my fellow citizens in an earnest desire and resolute purpose to close the open saloon in America, and live in hope of the day when the public drinking shops will be at least as rare as it now the public gambling hell.

2. I think there are some serious objections to prohibition as a means to this end, but they do not weigh in the balance, for a moment, against the objections to free, and unrestrained sale of liquor.

3. In some localities prohibition would simply result in the free, unrestrained, and open sale of liquor. Such would be the case in New York state.

4. I am convinced from personal observation that in Massachusetts, New York, and Pennsylvania, and I think also in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and indeed, in most of the states which have large cities and large foreign populations, the policy which affords the best promise of reducing the evils of the liquor traffic is the policy of a high license or high tax, with local option to the county or township, so that the people of each locality who have to enforce the law may prohibit the saloon traffic if they choose, while in those localities in which they do not choose to prohibit it, and in which, therefore, prohibition would be a dead letter, that traffic shall be compelled to bear at least a part of the burden which it entails upon the community.

In conclusion, let me add that you are at liberty to make what use of this letter you see fit, provided you publish the whole of it. It will be evident to you that the publication of a part only would be unjust, because not a truthful representation of my opinions. Yours very respectfully,
LYMAN ABBOTT,
Editor Christian Union.

There could not be a higher statesmanlike position on the question of the third party movement than that taken by Dr. Abbott. It is a position demanded by Christianity, by common sense, by simple justice, by everything that is honorable and fair in the temperance movement. There are certain states in which constitutional prohibition cannot be secured. In them it is an impossibility to get a majority of the people to vote for a banishment of the saloon. The foreign vote is so large in some states, taking for instance those named by Dr. Abbott, that it is utterly impossible to carry prohibition in them. Then comes the supreme question, one that is just as sober as it is supreme. "Shall we have high license and the greatest restriction possible, or shall we have free trade, open, and unrestricted sale of liquor?"

The third party prohibitionists cannot escape this question. It is ever present with them. They know that in many states prohibition is one of the impossibilities of the time. They certainly cannot have any doubt on this point. With this solemn fact before them will they still demand that rather than have high license or restriction, or local option, they will have free, open and universal saloons? Is there any man or woman of sound mind who is above prejudice and partisanship, in all this broad land, who will say that free whiskey, free drinking—the evil running riot—are better than any restrictive law? The powers of hell could not inflict a worse evil on any community in this day than that of a free flow of intoxicating liquors. It does seem that in the light of history and experience no man who has any regard for christian brotherhood or feels any religious or moral obligation resting upon him, would for one moment contend that it shall be prohibition or nothing. It is the duty of every citizen to work the best he can for this great temperance movement, to advance and take every inch of ground possible. If it cannot be prohibition, then local option; if not that, then the highest license and the greatest restriction that can be secured.

The third party prohibitionists who "are clothed with curses with a garment," when they sit in judgment on high license and local option, are committing a crime against the temperance cause, and it is hoped that all such will take the time to read Dr. Abbott's brief and pointed letter, for in it is the way to the best temperance reform this country can hope for.

WORLD'S W. C. T. U.

The National Woman's Christian Temperance Union has taken preliminary steps towards securing, in all parts of the world, a concert of prayer for the temperance cause. The noon hour of each day has been designated, ever since the crusade, as a time for individual lifting up of the heart, and now it is suggested that, in addition to this, Thursday afternoon be the time for a temperance prayer meeting, to be held weekly, or less often, as may be determined in the different localities. Thus, concerted prayer, by women in all nations, for the overthrow of the poison habits of all races, is rendered possible, and we urge attention to this as the very best kind of a beginning. The temperance ladies have consulted with leading missionaries, as well as workers in that great cause, and have found help and encouragement on every hand. They have also appointed Mrs. Mary Clement Leavitt, of Boston, who has for a year been working on the Pacific coast, under the auspices of the National W. O. T. U., to make a reconnaissance in the Sandwich Islands, Australia, and perhaps India, China and Japan, visiting the missionaries of those countries and endeavor to introduce the W. O. T. U. methods and to provide for a helpful interchange of sympathy and work [by which the influence of the gospel temperance movement shall eventually be felt the world. May this earnest, gifted, christian lady be abundantly blessed in her gospel embassy, and find a welcome in the hearts and homes of christians everywhere.

BALTIMORE IN GALA ATTIRE.

The Celebration of the City's Defense Before—Harrison Reviews the Parade.
BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 9.—The six days' celebration of the anniversary of the defense of Baltimore in our second war with Great Britain is going here Monday. The centennial portion of the city was lavishly decorated, the laces of National and State colors mingling with those of the flags of foreign nations and the black and orange, President Harrison, Secretary Windom and Tracy, and Marshall Randall arrived from Washington and with Gov. Jackson, Mayor Lathrop, and other notable figures, a parade of military and civic societies from the grand stand. The President was enthusiastically received.

The procession to the grand stand was led by the Governor and municipal officers. In it were numerous elaborate floats, conspicuous among them being war and peace floats escorted by descendants of the defenders of the city carrying a fac-simile of the star-spangled banner made by the women of Baltimore and immortalized by Francis Scott Key's national song. The war float was an allegorical picture of the battle of North Point. The Baltimore and Ohio floats—six in number—depicted the advance of railroading from the single horse passenger coach to the modern vestibule train. The geographical union had six floats representing the art of newspaper printing. One float in the procession cost $4,000 and six others cost $1,000 each.

There were 15,000 men and 1,000 floats in the procession. After it had passed the reviewing stand the President was conveyed to the Bennett house, where a banquet was given. One hundred and fifty prominent citizens and guests were at the table. Following the dinner came a reception at the city hall, where the President shook hands with 2,000 men, women and children. At 7:30 the President returned to Washington with Secretary Windom on an earlier train.

HE TOOK THEM ALL IN.

A London Forger Arrested After Capturing Fargo, D. T., with a Bogus Wife.
LONDON, P. M., Sept. 10.—Coward Riddle Miles, alias Leonard Morris, alias the brother of the Earl of Durham, alias the Earl of Chester, has been arrested here by a Scotland Yard detective on a charge of forging the name of Woodall & Co., London brokers, to paper for £1,500. Miles came to Fargo about five weeks ago bearing forged letters of introduction from Vanderbilt and numerous influential men and members of clubs in New York and England. He met by chance J. H. Edwards, agent of the bonanza Guardian fund, and passed himself as the brother of the Earl of Durham, an undergraduate of Oxford, and traveling in America for pleasure incognito under the name of Leonard Morris. He accompanied Mr. Edwards to view the bonanza farm. He made many acquaintances there, scattered his money broadcast, and with Mr. Edwards and other prominent men came to Fargo. He stopped at the leading hotel, registering as the Hon. Leonard Morris, England, and within a very short time was half fellow well met with a score or more. His money fairly flowed and no one was allowed to contribute a cent while in the "earl's" company.

At the time of the Republican State convention he signified a great desire to witness the proceedings and study politics. Such men as Gen. Allen, Col. Howell, Jud Lamoure, and other prominent in politics readily satisfied every wish. In society he stood on the top round. No party or private gathering of the elite was complete without the urbane "earl incognito." Strange stories soon began to go round, that he had been seen riding down Broadway with the demi-monde. Society chattered a trifle. His money flowed all the faster and he cut a wide swath until he was arrested and taken East to answer for his crime.

SEEKERS AFTER STATEHOOD.

Constitutional Conventions of Wyoming and New Mexico.
CHEYENNE, WY., Sept. 10.—Two resolutions looking to the acknowledgment of God in the constitution were introduced in the constitutional convention. Grant and Albany proposed resolutions favoring the Australian system of voting and making each county a Senatorial district. Jeffrey and Laramie favored the enactment of a clause prohibiting the bonding of any city or county to aid corporations.

SANTA FE, N. M., Sept. 10.—The constitutional convention discussed articles presented by committees on executive affairs and on an elective franchise. The latter committee's report was adopted, subject to amendment and revision. A constitutional provision that five years after the adoption of the constitution no person unable to read or write the English language shall exercise the right of suffrage was offered and referred to the committee on elective franchise.

ROBIN'S BLOODSTAINS.

LAWYER FORREST SECURES THEM BY FORCE.

He Seizes the Carlson Cottage, Although Opposed at the Point of a Revolver.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—At 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon Lawyer Forrest and three men as yet unknown to the police raided the Carlson cottage in which Dr. Cronin is believed to have been murdered, and succeeded in getting away with pieces of the flooring and walls covered with spots of Cronin's blood. Old man Carlson and his son-in-law, Mr. Lindgren, were in the cottage when a carriage containing four men and a driver stopped at the gate. Lindgren recognized Lawyer Forrest as one of the men, but he did not know the others. Lawyer Forrest and the other three men alighted, leaving the carriage in charge of the driver. Mr. Carlson went to the door, and one of the strangers asked him for permission to step inside to examine the rooms. The old man told them to enter and all four of them did so. The cottage has been arranged for the inspection of visitors by the building of a railing across the corner of the room. Visitors who are admitted can look at the blood spots and at the blood-stained furniture from beyond the railing, but are not permitted to step over it. Forrest and his three companions ranged themselves along the railing and gazed apparently with great curiosity at the broken rocking-chair and the washstand and the spots of blood upon the wall. Suddenly Forrest leaped over the railing, and commenced digging up pieces of wood, and with a jack knife. Mr. Carlson, who is a feeble old man, attempted to stop him, but Forrest easily pushed him back. Carlson then drew a revolver from his pocket and, aiming it at Forrest's head, ordered him out of the room. Lindgren stepped up and caught Forrest by the shoulders and attempted to restrain him. Carlson then drew a revolver from his pocket and, aiming it at Forrest's head, ordered him out of the room. Lindgren stepped up and caught Forrest by the shoulders and attempted to restrain him. Carlson then drew a revolver from his pocket and, aiming it at Forrest's head, ordered him out of the room. Lindgren stepped up and caught Forrest by the shoulders and attempted to restrain him.

The driver whipped up his horses and a minute after the party had disappeared the place of the blood spots was empty. Around the corner. Lindgren went to the Lake View station in the evening and reported what had happened. Lieut. Koch detailed several officers but they were not able to find Forrest. Old man Carlson and Lindgren can give but a vague description of the men who were with the lawyer. The men were all large and heavily built, and had apparently been selected for fighting purposes.

NO ARRESTS HAVE BEEN MADE IN THE MATTER AND LIEUT. KOCH SAID THAT NONE WOULD BE MADE UNTIL HE HAD BEEN TOLD BY SOMEONE HIGHER IN AUTHORITY THAN HIMSELF.

ESCAPED FROM JOLLET.

Two Convicts Elude Their Guard, Seize the Wall, and Get Away.
JOLLET, Ill., Sept. 10.—Edward Stone, a convict here for eight years, escaped from Morrison, and Henry Miller, sent up for two years from Waukegan, escaped from Jollet prison Monday morning. A reward of $100 is offered for the recapture of the men, and a large force of prison officials are out after them. Stone is 21 years old, 5 feet 10 inches high, weighs 140 pounds, sandy complexion, blue eyes, bright red hair, slim build, smooth face. Miller is aged 24, about 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighs 140 pounds, light sandy complexion, hazel eyes, Auburn hair. Has a large, ugly scar on his right jaw.

The convicts, with two others, were attending the engine which runs the stone saw in charge of an officer and a foreman. Under cover of darkness they slipped out of the engine-room, and with ropes and hooks attached managed to scale the forty-foot wall and escape before an alarm could be given. This is the first escape from the prison which has been accomplished in many years.

ALLEGED "WHITE CAPS" IN JAIL.

Some of Indiana's Influential Citizens Are Charged with Brutality.
MARION, Ind., Sept. 10.—Upon indictment returned by the grand jury the sheriff during the last two days has arrested William Oxley, William Cassler, James McMillen, James Woodard, Ezra Farr, Lawrence Woodard, George Green, Daniel Farr, Joseph Maddox, John Oliver, and James Cassler on the charge of riot and conspiracy. The men are charged with the "White Cap" case in which Mrs. Aseneth Street and her daughter were taken from their beds at midnight and whipped. They were arrested during the court vacation on the charge of assault and battery and placed under bonds. Most of the prisoners are influential men and heads of families.

TRIED TO BURN HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

ARCHMONT, East, Sept. 10.—John Fredel, a farmer living near here, became insane Saturday afternoon. He locked his wife and three children in the house, set fire to the building and then hid in the barn nearby to watch results. The woman and children escaped through a back window. The house and contents were completely destroyed. Last Saturday night Fredel was placed in jail.

S. S. COX IS DYING.

Reported to Be in the Last Stages of Acute Pneumonia.
New York, Sept. 10.—Congressman Samuel Sullivan Cox is dying at his home, 19 East Twelfth street. Four days ago he was confined to his bed by an attack of what he supposed to be malarial fever. This rapidly developed into acute pneumonia, which has defied the best medical skill. Yesterday his physicians gave up all hope and announced that the remaining days of the Congressman's life could be numbered on the fingers of one hand.

NORTHWESTERN RATE SITUATION.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—An adjourned meeting of the western and northwestern division of the Western Freight association was held Monday to further consider the northwestern rate situation. Chairman Rathbun, who had been appointed a committee to treat with the Eastern roads relative to the establishment of a joint through tariff between the seaboard and St. Paul to meet the competition of the Canadian and Lake Superior routes, reported that the trunk lines had definitely refused to enter into any such arrangements. The conference was then consumed in endeavoring to devise some new plan for meeting Canadian competition, but no conclusion was reached.

YIELDING TO THE STRIKERS.

THE DAY'S BUDGET OF WASH-INGTON NEWS.

Gen. Butler Accused in Court of Forgery —Explaining the Public Debt Statement—Gossip.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—There was a notable scene in the Equity court this morning in which Gen. Benjamin F. Butler figured. Butler has for a year been the attorney of Samuel Strong, who had a large claim against the Government. An award of $47,000 was recently given Strong and Butler's suit for $30,000 of the amount for money advanced and as part of his fees. He produced a contract signed by Strong allowing him that sum.
Strong said Butler had locked him up in a room and forced him to sign the contract, which he pronounced a forgery. Strong's attorney also produced a contract signed by Butler, and the latter instantly proposed that his signature be behind the running counters between the attorneys for Strong and Gen. Butler were caustic and sensational. With tears in his eyes Butler pleaded for an alteration of the record which would not show the charge of forgery against him. He grew pathetic; then he denounced Strong in bitter terms, branding him as a forger and declaring that he ought to be behind bars of prison. Strong's attorney said that if it were not for intimacies brought upon his witnesses the gates of the penitentiary would open for Benjamin Butler. Sixty days' time was duly given for the production of desired testimony on charges of forgery brought on both sides.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

An Actual Decrease Despite the Figures of the Monthly Statement.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Referring to certain newspaper statements that during the months of July and August of this year the public debt had been increased over $7,000,000, while during the same months in 1888 the debt had been decreased over $11,000,000, Secretary Windom today said the fact was that the public debt had been decreased $30,110,180 during July and August of this year. The statements, he said, arose doubtless from the peculiar form of the monthly public debt statement in which the amount of debt is given "less cash in the treasury." By this form any increase of the cash in the treasury shows an apparent decrease of the debt; and disbursements, for any purposes other than the purchase of bonds at par value, show an apparent increase of the public debt equal to the amount of such disbursement.

New York Appointment.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The President has made the following appointments: George W. Lyon, surveyor of customs for the port of New York; Theodore B.
Willis of Brooklyn, naval officer of customs in the district of New York; Ernst Nathan, collector of internal revenue for the first district of New York.

TONY DELIGHT IS DEAD.

The Well-Known Barber Evangelist Passes Away.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Tony Delight, barber, evangelist, and ex-gambler, died Monday night at his residence, 791 Warren avenue, from an affection of the heart.
Though for two weeks he had been suffering from indisposition, his condition was at no time considered serious. The immediate cause of his death was failure of the heart, due to overwork and exertion, and only in his duties as a barber, but in the religious and temperance field, in which he was an indefatigable laborer.
Mr. Delight crowded into his 60 years the events of two lives. For nearly forty years he has been a familiar figure on the streets of Chicago. From a life of the wildest debauchery he suddenly changed to a conscientious, hard-working advocate of Christianity. By profession a barber, he was by instinct, until fourteen years ago, a gambler and general sporting man.

The death of a lady daughter wrought the change and from thenceforward he renounced his wayward career and joined the First Congregational church. Since then he has preached the cause of religion and temperance from platform and pulpit, holding services evenings and Sunday and drawing audiences over which he exerted a wonderful influence for good. He leaves a widow and three children, two married daughters and a son.

FORCED TO ASSIGN.

The Aurora Watch Company in Deep Water—It May Fall Through.

AURORA, Ill., Sept. 10.—The Aurora
Watch company made an assignment Monday for the benefit of its creditors to Truman H. Day of this city. The liabilities are in the neighborhood of $300,000.
Of this amount $15,000 is due to employees; also large amounts to a syndicate, the banks of this city, two banks in Quincy and M. Hoffman of Quincy.
The estimated assets are: Real estate, $80,000; finished watches, $10,000, and bills receivable, judgments were entered against the company by the Aurora banks. The capital stock is $250,000, which is deemed inadequate to run the factory on a profitable basis, although they have been doing a very fine business.
It is probable that the difficulty is only temporary, and that the factory will continue to run as usual.

A SUBSTANTIAL CLAIM.

The Heirs of a Former Slave Claim Part of Loganport, Ind.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 10.—The descendants of Benjamin Talbot, colored, residents of Loganport, Ind., have claim to about 640 acres of land covering the central portion of the city of Logan-port, Ind. Talbot, who is a slave, settled at Loganport in 1810. He was bought from the Government 640 acres of land and lived there until the passage of the fugitive slave law, when he abandoned his home in Indiana and came to Cincinnati. He never returned to claim it, but often spoke of it to his children. Not long ago one of them put the matter into the hands of attorneys, who, upon examination, found Talbot's title incontestable. It is said that the Walshaw and El River railway companies have already compromised with the heirs. The entire property is said to be worth several millions of dollars.

SEARLE'S VICTORY.

Australia's Oarsman Defeats O'Connor
by Ten Lengths.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The great race between Searle, the champion of Australia, and O'Connor, of Canada, for the championship of the world was rowed on the Thames Monday. The Australian coming in ten lengths ahead of O'Connor.

The result was not a surprise to the victor's friends, as they had offered odds on the Australian. Just before the race Searle O'Connor's backers offered even money on the Canadian, and his friends now present a sorry-looking spectacle, as they lost a large amount of money.

Thousands of people were gathered along the banks of the river to witness the great event, many people taking up positions early in the day in order to be able to have a good view of the contest.

The race was rowed over a course of four miles and three furlongs, and was for a purse of £1,000. Searle's time was 22:42.

Searle won the toss for position and chose the Surrey side of the river. O'Connor had the best of the start and led by half a length until the boat-house was reached.

There were occasional squalls of wind during the progress of the race and off Surrey the water was slightly lumpy.
Otherwise the conditions were good. The sun was shining. The beating during the forenoon was virtually even at 21 to 50 on Searle, and bets at these figures were taken readily. Finally the odds changed to 5 to 1 against Searle.

The start was made by mutual consent at 1:25, with O'Connor rowing at a terrific rate. Soon after the start O'Connor "caught a crab" and Searle overtook him and gained the lead. Searle was rowing splendidly, but slowed up beyond Walden.

The Australian apparently without effort, and rowing twenty-nine strokes a minute, gained half a length, which he gradually increased to three lengths. O'Connor frequently and anxiously looked over his opponent. When Hamersmith bridge was reached O'Connor appeared to be distressed. At the Thorncroft iron works both men were pulling in good form. A head wind was blowing, but the water in Chiswick reach was not affected. Here Searle was three lengths ahead. O'Connor rowed splendidly. He seemed to have been overtrained, however, for after the first mile had been rowed he tired very quickly. The course was well kept.

DECLINE SCOTT'S OFFER.

Spring Valley Miners Say They Could Not Live at the Price Offered.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., Sept. 10.—The miners held a mass meeting Monday and declined to accept Mr. Scott's offer of a 15-cent reduction, which, they say, with the terms proposed, is really a reduction of 75 cents a ton. Resolutions were adopted denouncing Mr. Scott's proposition as both unjust and unreasonable, as the men could not make a bare subsistence on the terms offered, and declared that it had not been sufficiently demonstrated that there is any reason or any necessity for such reduction. The resolution further declares that men are ready and willing to resume work on the same terms as have been accepted by the Stearns miners —a reduction of 75 cents a ton, a ton with the same conditions as last year, the operators charging no more for house rent during the lockout and furnishing coal to miners at cost. Resolutions were also drafted to be presented to the Governor inviting him to make a personal investigation here, and setting forth that the Spring Valley company, after having induced men to come here and buy property and securing the payment of the same, had broken their contract and were offering inducements to come here after getting the mines fairly developed, had shut down the mines, and leaving the miners and others who had invested here in a state of bankruptcy, and appealing for aid and asking that a portion of the emergency fund be given to the suffering people here, and requesting that a special session of the Legislature be called.

Verdict Against a Priest.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 10.—The jury in the case of Dr. Louis Morasse, a practicing physician of Southbridge, against Rev. Father G. E. Brennan, priest of the Notre Dame church, brought in a verdict this morning awarding damages of $1,500, with interest, to the plaintiff. Dr. Morasse was a parishioner of Father Brennan. The doctor was divorced from his first wife and was married to another woman by a justice of the peace. For this action he was summoned from the pulpit by Father Brennan, who thereupon brought the above suit.

HEMMED IN BY FLAMES.

ONE KILLED AND SEVERAL HURT AT A FIRE.

Men Perish in a Flooded Mine—Five Killed by a Thrasher Explosion—Casualties.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 10.—F. J. Mc-Carthy's large rag and general paper stock warehouse was totally destroyed by fire last afternoon. The fire was caused by spontaneous combustion of a pile of rags in the third story. So quickly did the fire spread through the greasy-saturated building that employees, consisting of about fourteen women and girls, were in the sorting room and ten men and boys in the office or about the building were forced to jump for their lives. The majority leaped from the roof of a neighboring house and escaped. Carrie Swartz jumped into the yard and crashed through the roof of an outhouse, breaking her arm and several ribs and sustaining internal injuries. Mrs.
Ellen Mack jumped from the fourth story, a distance of seventy feet, and fell upon a pile of scrap iron. She fractured her left wrist and received numerous cuts about the face and head, besides severe burns.
Her condition is critical. Richard Gamble, a book-keeper, lost his life. He went to the top of the building just before the fire began and his escape was prevented by his endeavoring to extinguish the flames he fell through the shaft and was badly cut and bruised, but the inhalation of the flame was the direct cause of his death. Mrs. John Franck, who came from the fourth story, and Mrs. Ellen Mc-Shane, who fell through the elevator shaft, sustained fractures of the limbs and severe lacerations, but not necessarily fatal injuries. Several others received severe injuries.

We do not wish to think that any dealer would seek to prosper by making false statements concerning his own business or that of a competitor. We have sought in the past to keep the best and deal in a straightforward manner with all, and are still doing so, and with any statement made to the contrary it is untrue. May the time soon come when honor, rather than low sales will induce business men to tell only the truth with regard to their own affairs and not seek to injure their neighbors.

BISHOP NEWMAN'S WORDS.

Listened to by a Large and Appreciative Audience Last Evening.

SYNOPSIS OF THE SERMON.

A Royal Reception Tendered the Bishop Newman After the Service.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, Court Street church was filled last evening to hear the sermon by Bishop J. P. Newman. The speaker was introduced as a man of more than national reputation, a man well known in foreign countries.

The bishop took for his subject, "The Reliability of the Evidence of the Christian Religion." His text was, "We speak that we know and testify that we have seen." He said: "There are two great assertions in this text, the first is 'We speak that we know,' the second, 'We testify that we have seen.' Christ is not an agnostic. Nothing is so cowardly, so sneaking, as agnosticism. I have some respect for the man who believes there is no God, as much respect as one can have for a fool, I have some respect for the man who makes learning a God, but I have no respect for the agnostic. Christ says that the testimony of the senses is to be relied upon. All science is the testimony of the senses. The mariner's faith in the astronomer's science is merely trusting the reliability of the evidence of the senses. Carried into the realm of intellect the same principle is true. The agnostic claims that man is not endowed with this knowing power for religious matters. I have found almost all agnostics to be evolutionists. The evolutionist claims that each faculty is developed when needed. Very well, I ask you what faculty is more needed than the faculty to know God?

The miracles refer to what man has seen and heard. The atheist strikes at every miracle. No, the testimony of the senses is reliable. Reason may be warped, the intellect may be dimmed, but the common consensus of mankind is that the testimony of the senses is to be relied upon. The sense of guilt from breaking a divine law is the same as comes from breaking a civil law. Can we trust this sense of guilt and peace? Certainly we can. The transition from darkness to light is just as perceptible in spiritual matters as in the physical world. Prayer is two-fold in its effects, reflective on the individual, and prayers are answered by our God. The effect on the individual is enough, if nothing more were to be looked for but the answer to prayer is sure, not as we expect or want an answer, but nevertheless the best answer. We can apprehend God, but not comprehend Him. God is thinkable and knowable; a great mistake of some ministers to preach that he is not. To me prayer is a fact, a reality, and is always answered. There are many striking examples of answers to prayer to be found all around us if we could only know them. I beseech you tell them. The world hungers for these experiences. Give them to the world.

There are collateral arguments for the truth of Christianity from miracles and prophecy, but these do not prove anything. The proof that a man loves his wife, his own consciousness that he loves her. The only real proof of the truth of Christianity is this consciousness. The world yearns for such testimony. The most potent thing about a minister is a character. Herein lies his power; not in great sermons. His power for good comes more from his indirect than from his direct work. The indication of Christ was greater than his direction. The weakness of the church is in placing these important matters, collateral proofs in the supreme place. The power of Zion is in a personal experience.

Happiness flows out, not in. The sources of happiness are internal, not external. What is true of earth, is true of heaven. Human descriptions of heaven are wearisome to me, but I turn to that grand old book, the bible, and there I get the description. I care not where heaven is, God is there; the image of Christ will be reflected in our hearts, and that will be heaven.

THE RECEPTION.

After the sermon the congregation were invited to the lecture room of the church where a reception for the Bishop was held. Every one was given an opportunity to shake hands with the great divine, and nearly every one in the large audience improved the opportunity. The ladies of the two M. E. churches had provided refreshments to which all were freely invited and of which all partook freely. The social gathering did not break up till a late hour, and was much enjoyed by those present. A large number of clergymen were present from out of town.

A SMALL SHAME-UP.

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN CARS DERRAILED.

This morning as the way freight on the Chicago & Northwestern road was pulling out, it in some way succeeded in bunting two cars off the track just below the Pleasant street crossing. One was a box and the other a flat car, both being heavily loaded with coal, which made them hard to handle. It took until the middle of the forenoon to get them back on the track. Traffic over the road was not delayed on account of the accident.

It is true the complaint charges Mr. Powers with failure to support, and deserting his family. The publication of other matters as "current report," ought not to have appeared in these columns, and the Gazette sincerely regrets that they so appeared, as their publication was an injustice to the defendant, having no foundation or origin in a neighborhood or family quarrel. Instead of the plaintiff being stripped of all her property by the defendant and creditors, the Gazette has since been reliably informed that the plaintiff has now in her possession a horse and carriage, besides other valuable articles belonging to the defendant. The Gazette has no desire to prejudice the public against Mr. Powers, and again reiterates regrets that the item so appeared in its columns.

OUR CITY GOVERNMENT.

Regular Meeting of the Common Council Last Evening.

ORDERS AND ORDINANCES.

The Sewer Pipe Contract—Bridge Signs—Salvation Army—The Election Boards.

The common council held a regular semi-monthly meeting last evening, at which His Honor, Mayor J. W. St. John, presided, all the aldermen answering to their names except Alds. Casey, Norris and Thoroughgood.

The journal of the last regular and adjourned meetings was read and approved.

The August statement of the judge of the municipal court was read, referred to the judiciary committee, found correct and ordered placed on file.

The quarterly report of the chief engineer of the fire department was presented, referred to the fire and water committee, and subsequently accepted and placed on file. The report is published in full in this evening's Gazette.

The resignation of H. T. Root as a member of the hook and ladder company was read and referred to the fire and water committee, and on recommendation of that committee the same was accepted.

The clerk read the petition of James Sennett, asking permission to transfer his place of business (saloon) from 209 West Milwaukee street, to 213 West Milwaukee street. Referred to license committee, and on favorable report of that committee the same was granted.

The petition of M. A. Cox asking permission to transfer his license to J. W. Walquist, and the bond of Walquist were presented and referred to license and judiciary committees.

The clerk read the following:—To the Mayor and Common Council, City of Janesville:

GENTLEMEN:—The undersigned pro- tests against the action of the common council in awarding the contract to furnish the city with sewer pipe to Mills Bros. for the current year.

When you advertised for the lowest bid to furnish the city with Akron pipe of "high" good quality," you thereby admitted that there was other sewer pipe equal in quality to the Akron.

In my bid I agreed to furnish pipe of like good quality as the Akron, and also furnished same to Frank E. Howland, one of the largest manufacturers of sewer pipe in the country, as to the quality.

The right of the city to buy the Akron pipe is not questioned in a regular business transaction, but the common council has raised no question as to the quality of the pipe or given me the slightest opportunity to be heard, as to the quality of the pipe to be furnished, and for ought the council know I might have furnished Akron pipe under my bid.

If the Akron is the only good sewer pipe, it is unfortunate that so few persons have discovered it, because it is a small concern when compared with many others.

If it was forced by the council that Akron pipe only should be used by the city, why trouble with the other dealers by asking them to bid?

It looks like a case of sharp practice on the part of some person to advertise the Akron sewer pipe at the expense of the tax payers of the city of Janesville.

Respectfully, A. E. BURPEE.

Also the following:—To the Mayor and Common Council, City of Janesville:

GENTLEMEN:—Under a public advertisement made by order of your body, I made a proposition for furnishing the city sewer pipe. I consider that my proposition was the lowest and most favorable one made, and that rightfully and legally, I should be made the award for furnishing the city with pipe under the advertisement, and I request the action of your body in awarding this pipe to the highest bidder.

Yours truly, W. H. H. MACDONALD.

The communications were referred to the judiciary committee.

Mayor St. John announced the appointment of P. McGinley, and Ed. Smith as special police for Saturday nights and Sundays, from September 4th to December 4th.

On motion of Ald. Horn the appointments were confirmed.

Ald. THE CLERK READ AN ORDINANCE PREPARED BY THE CITY ATTORNEY UNDER RESOLUTION OF THE COUNCIL, AMENDING THE FIRE LIMIT ORDINANCE, ADDING THERE TO BLOCK 25, ORIGINAL VILLAGE OF JANEVILLE.

The ordinance was read the first and second times, the rules were suspended, and the ordinance read a third time and passed.

Ald. Jackson introduced an ordinance to repeal section one of an ordinance entitled "an ordinance to prevent fast riding or driving on bridges, and to prevent the obstruction of bridges."

The ordinance was read the first and second times, the rules were suspended, and the ordinance read the third time and passed.

Ald. Conrad, directing the removal of all signs from the city bridges. Adopted.

City Attorney Doe informed the council that an attorney from Chicago named Wakeley, claiming to represent the Salvation Army, had served papers upon him and the city marshal, claiming to hold the city responsible for damages for the arrest of the members of the army. He had no means of knowing by what authority he represented the army, and that the papers served were of no account, although he thought it best to inform the council.

Mr. Wakeley also desired the common council to fix certain streets on which the army would parade and hold open air meetings and be under certain restrictions imposed by the council pending the decision of the case.

Ald. Jackson—I wish I had known the attorney was here, I would have served a notice on him that I held the army responsible for my buggy.

Mayor St. John—There is a street called Chestnut street in the vicinity of the slaughter houses that might do for them to parade on. The name of the street and the location is quite appropriate.

Ald. Baker—Probably they might secure one of the slaughter houses in which to hold their meetings.

Ald. Hara—They might go to the deaf and dumb asylum at Dolan.

City Attorney Doe—I have been asked to make a test case of one of the cases and drop the other six. This I refused to do, as I had no instructions to that effect from the council. It is my business to see that the ordinances are enforced. If I could have my way in the matter the city would have control of the streets for a time, as it would take a year, at least, to decide the test case.

Mayor St. John—Which is better, to have one case or seven?

City Attorney Doe—That depends on whether you want the city to have control of the streets or the Salvation Army.

Mayor St. John—The city wants to have control of her own streets.

City Attorney Doe—Then seven cases are better than one. We will make it as interesting for them as possible, and in the meantime have the streets clear.
